

Privacy Policy Statement

One of the main goals of the website operator, ESH Kft., is full compliance with all Hungarian and European Union legislation, including the protection of the personal data of its consumers and business partners.

Name, e-mail address, residential address, telephone number, birth data, marital status, billing information, bank and bank account information, generated commission, bank card data, username, password are considered personal data.

Of the above data, ESH Kft. collects these personal data in accordance with the European Parliament and Council (EU) Regulation 2016/679 (April 27, 2016) /GDPR Regulation/ and CXII of 2011 on the right to self-determination of information and freedom of information in Hungary act and store it in full compliance with its provisions. We process personal data only if the data subject has consented to it, it is necessary for the performance of the contract and we only use it for the purpose for which the data subject provided it to us.

ESH Kft. performs data management based on the data subject's consent or the terms of the contract, and only uses it within the system operated by ESH Kft., during the business relationship with the data subject. The data can only be handled and viewed by the current managers of ESH Kft. and its employees working with the company. Given the requirement of the mandatory retention period for invoices laid down in the Accounting Act, we will retain and record the personal data required for the invoice (name, billing address) for the same period of time.

The invoices are processed by a separate chartered accountant who, in order to fulfill the accounting tasks, can get to know the personal data included in the invoice, and this data will be forwarded to the accountant as such. In accordance with the provisions contained in Article 12 of the GDPR regulation, the necessary information, information, and the rights of the data subjects are contained in detail in our Data Management Information: <https://esh.hu/adatkezelesi.pdf>

During the processing of personal data, ESH Kft. ensures the security of the data, compliance with the rules for data management, and ensures the protection of the privacy of the data subjects. If you have any questions or comments regarding the protection of your data, please contact us at the following contact details: info@esh.hu
